

New York State School Counselor Association

GOVERNING POLICIES

OPERATIONAL PARAMETERS

The Governing Board (hereafter the board) shall not cause or allow any practice, activity, decision, or organizational circumstance that is either unlawful, imprudent, or in violation of commonly accepted business and professional ethics or compromises the profession of school counselors.

Article I: Treatment of stakeholders

With respect to interactions with stakeholders or those applying to be stakeholders, the board shall not cause or allow conditions, procedures, or decisions that are unsafe, undignified, unnecessarily intrusive, or that fail to provide appropriate confidentiality or privacy.

Section A. Membership

1. Membership Categories

School counseling professionals and others interested in school counseling are eligible for membership in various membership categories as specified in the bylaws.

- a. Professional Membership. Professional members must hold a masters degree or higher in counseling or the substantial equivalent and must be credentialed as a school counselor by a state, district, or territory of the United States or the credentialing agency of the country in which they practice or must be employed as counselor educators in a graduate program that prepares school counselors.
- b. Retired Members. Members who are in retirement and do not hold full-time positions in school counseling are eligible for Retired membership. Retired members hold a masters degree or higher in counseling or the substantial equivalent; are or were credentialed as a school counselor by a state, district, or territory of the United States or the credentialing agency of the country in which they practice; or were employed as school counselors, supervisors of school counselors, or counselor educators in a graduate program that prepares school counselors.
- c. Student Membership. Students who are enrolled in a graduate program that prepares school counselors and who do not hold full-time positions in school counseling are eligible for student membership.
- d. Affiliate Membership. Individuals interested in counseling, who are not eligible for any other type of membership, may become Affiliate members.

2. Rights and Privileges.

All members shall receive the rights and privileges accorded their membership categories as specified in NYSSCA policies that address membership. Members are eligible to vote on all matters that come before the association and hold positions, elected and appointed, on the board as described in the Nominations and Elections policy.

3. Severance of Membership.

Association members may be disciplined or expelled from membership for one or more of the following reasons.

- a. A member is delinquent in paying membership dues. Membership may be revoked at the discretion of the membership chairperson and may be reinstated upon the payment of current dues.
- b. A member is in violation of the American School Counselor Association's Ethical Standards for School Counselors.
- c. A member's state license or credential has been revoked.
- d. Any other reason deemed by the board to be in the best interests of NYSSCA.

Revocation Process

The following process shall be used to determine revocation of NYSSCA membership, except in the case of nonpayment of dues.

- a. A request to revoke membership must be made in writing, with a statement of the specific reasons why revocation is sought, and sent to the NYSSCA President by certified mail. The charges must be made over the signature of at least 10 NYSSCA members in good standing, or one or more members of the board.
- b. To initiate action regarding the revocation of membership, a notice of intent to revoke must first be passed by a majority of the board members present and voting. The member(s) in question must be advised in writing of the reasons for the proposed action.
- c. Member(s) who receive a notice of intent to revoke membership shall be given 30 days to respond in writing to the charges and to submit the response to the NYSSCA President.
- d. Member(s) who receive a notice of intent to revoke membership shall be given the opportunity to appear before the board or a mutually agreed upon impartial body consisting of not less than three nor more than seven individuals selected by the President with the concurrence of the board. Such impartial body shall exclude any NYSSCA members involved with the charges. The hearing may be conducted in person, via telephone conference call or other mutually agreed upon method. The person(s) bringing the charges shall also have an opportunity to appear at a hearing. If any costs are incurred to hold a hearing, such costs shall be paid by the party that requests the hearing. The impartial body shall present its findings and recommendations for revocation, remediation and reinstatement to the board within 30 days following the hearing and gathering of all evidence.
- e. If a hearing is held, the member(s) in question shall have the opportunity to question witnesses against them. If either party desires legal representation at the hearing, the NYSSCA President must be notified in writing by certified mail within 30 days prior to the hearing in order to advise the other party to this action.

- f. Revocation, remediation and reinstatement of membership must be approved by two-thirds of the board members present and voting. Any members of the Board who are involved in the charges in any way shall refrain from voting or taking part in the consideration of the issue.
- g. Decisions made by the board regarding revocation, remediation and reinstatement of membership shall be considered final.
- h. The member(s) charged with violations of Ethical Standards and the person(s) bringing those charges shall be notified by the NYSSCA President within 30 days in writing by certified mail of the final action taken by the board.

4. Dues Structure

The dues structure is approved by the board based on recommendations of the membership chairperson, finance committee, and /or NYSSCA President. NYSSCA has a reduced fee for students and retired counselors. The membership fee covers only a fraction of the cost of membership.

The following annual membership dues are in effect as of October 2, 2004:

- Professional $40.00
- Affiliate/Retired/Student $30.00

The following annual membership dues are in effect as of September 1,2005:

- Professional $45.00
- Affiliate/Retired/Student $35.00

5. Membership List Rental/Release

NYSSCA’s membership list shall not be rented or released to any for-profit organization. At the discretion of the NYSSCA President and/or Executive Secretary, the membership list may be released to other professional associations if those associations reciprocate.

6. NYSSCA Regions:

NYSSCA’s membership is divided into ten regions. This structure reflects the division of the state into BOCES Joint Management Teams, as defined by the New York State Education Department. The list below describes which BOCES regions are in each of NYSSCA’s ten regions. Any school counselor working in a public or private school, and counselor educator employed by a college or university, or any retired/student member residing within the confines of a particular BOCES should consider themselves residents of the corresponding NYSSCA region.
